

Robyn Braley Bio & Backgrounder

WRITER AND EXECUTIVE PRODUCER

We Come To Pray was written specifically for the Global Day of Prayer 2007 by Robyn Braley, Meg Braley, and Jerry Proppe. Braley has broad experience as a performer, promoter, producer, and writer.

In 1999, Robyn was the Co-Chair of the PR Committee for the highly successful Calgary Festival '99 with Franklin Graham. Major artists included Michael W. Smith, Jars of Clay, and Ricky Skaggs. The four-day event drew 92,100 to the Pengrowth Saddledome and overflow seating in the Stampede Coral.

For 7 years, Robyn was the Executive Director of The Sounds of Joy Concert series. Artists like Steve Green, Larnelle Harris, Dino, Sandi Patti, Andrus Blackwood, and The Cathedrals were featured.

For four years he provided marketing services and startup consulting for a Southern Gospel series in Calgary and later for the annual Weekend Celebration at Camp Harmattan near Olds, Alberta. Both events continue to operate and have collectively featured groups like Gold City, The Booth Brothers, Signature Sound, Legacy Five, the Hoppers, Greater Vision, and many others.

As concert artists, Meg & Robyn Braley performed in many parts of the USA and Canada on a full and part-time basis from 1972 to 1994. They recorded 11 albums and produced 21 for other artists.

From 1976 until 1994, Robyn & Meg were featured artists and the music producers for the nationally televised, To You...With Love, hosted by Allan Dunbar. The program was seen throughout Alberta on Calgary and Edmonton stations and coast to coast via the CANCOM satellite system.

Robyn served one term on the Board of the Vibe (Shai) Awards and as Vice Chair of The Canadian Continentals from 1996-2001. He was a Director for the Calgary N.E. Conservative Party of Canada Constituency Association from 2000 to 2004 and was an elected delegate to the parties founding convention in Montreal in 2005.

Robyn is a frequent media guest, conference speaker, seminar leader, and freelance writer. He is regularly published in trade, professional, and Christian magazines.

Robyn and Meg operate UniMark Creative Services, a marketing and communications firm. They remain active as songwriters and have more than 60 original songs in their publishing catalogue which is managed by their publishing company, Braley Music.

FOR MEDIA INFORMATION

Robyn Braley

Tel: (403) 280-1093, Cell: (403) 829-3340

robyn@unimarkcreative.ca

www.braleymusic.com

www.unimarkcreativeservices.com